Casual/Seasonal JOB OPENING

Opening Date: April 24, 2020

Closing Date: UNTIL FILLED

This is a Casual/Seasonal Deputy Attorney General position (maximum of 37.5 hours work per week) without healthcare benefits. Salary will be commensurate with experience under the Attorney Pay Plan.

Casual/Seasonal Deputy Attorney General
Impact Litigation
Fraud and Consumer Protection Division, New Castle County

Description of Duties:

The Division of Fraud and Consumer Protection, New Castle County, seeks an attorney to work with the Department of Justice's Director of Impact Litigation to handle a growing and fast-paced caseload of multistate litigation arising out of the interpretation and application of federal law to the State of Delaware and its citizens, as well as other duties as assigned. Working in consultation with the Director of Impact Litigation, this attorney will also review and make recommendations for requests to join amicus briefs and comment letters regarding issues of national legal significance and importance. This attorney will also have the opportunity to identify policy issues on which to draft letters, briefs, or complaints for Delaware to serve as the lead state and coordinate national advocacy efforts.

Necessary job requirements include:

- Excellent research, writing, and communication skills.
- The ability to draft and revise affidavits, declarations, and other civil pleadings in conjunction with multi-party litigation under tight timeframes.
- The ability to evaluate federal and state laws, rules, and regulations, and the United States and Delaware Constitutions.
- The ability to maintain a good working relationship with other DAGs, administrative staff and Court personnel, and
- A strong commitment to working in the public interest.

Delaware Bar membership is preferred but not required. If the successful applicant is not admitted to the Delaware Bar, the title for this position may be adjusted to reflect that status.

Application review will commence on April 17, 2020.
